

Tevfik Bedirhan ÜSTÜN

Curriculum Vitae

September 28, 2015

POSITION : Coordinator,
Classifications, Terminologies and Standards
Department of Health Statistics and Information Systems

OFFICE ADDRESS : World Health Organization
Geneva CH-1211
Switzerland

Phone : +41.22.791.3609
Fax : +41.22.791.4885
E-mail : ustunb@who.int

Tevfik Bedirhan ÜSTÜN is the Coordinator of the Classifications, Terminologies and Standards Team in the World Health Organization. He has worked in WHO since 1990 first in Mental Health, then in Information, Evidence and Research Cluster.

He has obtained in Medical and Specialty Degrees and his Docent in Psychiatry (P.D. - Associate Professor degree) at Hacettepe University, Ankara, Turkey.

Dr. Üstün has worked as an international health officer and formed multiple international networks on Classification and Assessment of Health and Disability; Mental Health Epidemiology, and Primary Care applications of classification and training programmes.

As the Team Coordinator for the Classification Terminologies and Standards in the Health Statistics and Informatics Department at the World Health organization, Dr Üstün is currently responsible for:

- WHO's Family of International Classifications (ICD, ICF and other health classifications);
- WHO's activities on terminologies: standardized definitions and applications
- _ WHO activities on Health Information Standards: compilations of standards on health information

Dr. Üstün is the author and co-author of more than 150 articles, several books on psychiatry, primary care, and health assessment mainly in English also in Turkish, French, Spanish and Italian.
(h index: 70; i10 index: 151; RG: 41.8; Klout 61)

Further information: <http://www.who.int/classifications>;
https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Tevfik_Ustun