

Mevludin Hasanović

Bosnia and Herzegovina

Primaries, specialist in neuropsychiatry, subspecialist of Social psychiatry, group analyst, European accredited EMDR practitioner hameaz@bih.net.ba

Son of Ibrahim and Hadžera (born as Omerbašić), was born in 1958 in Brčko, where he finished elementary school and Gymnasium. He graduated medicine at the School of Medicine in Sarajevo 1982. He got his employment as physician at the Primary Health Care Center Brčko, than in the Neuropsychiatry Unit of General Hospital Brčko. From 1996 he is employed on the Department of Psychiatry up today, and now he is the Head of the Social Psychiatry Ward. In 1991 he completed his specialization in neuropsychiatry in Zagreb (Croatia) after residential education in Brčko, Tuzla and Zagreb. He completed postgraduate study from Forensic Psychiatry in Zagreb too. During 1997 he completed education on the Queens University – Kingston (Canada) in Family Medicine, and in 1998 he spent a study tour at the University of Missouri - Columbia (USA) in the field of trauma psychology. From 1998 to 1999 he was trained in supervision (University in Gothenburg-Sweden). In addition, he is graduated Group Analyst (2009) and Educator of Group Analysis (2013), (given by Institute of Group Analysis, Zagreb) also he is an European Accredited EMDR Practitioner (2013). He had study tour in 2005 year for training from drug addiction on the Beröendecentrum, University Hospital – Örebro (Sweden). He received his Master's degree in the "Acculturation problems of school children and adolescents during repatriation" from the School of Medicine University of Tuzla in 2003. Since 2006 he is assistant professor who taught Psychiatry on Educational Rehabilitation School and from 2008 Family Medicine on the School of Medicine within the undergraduate courses on University of Tuzla. He received his Ph.D. in 2009 with his dissertation on "The quality of life of war veterans in Bosnia-Herzegovina with posttraumatic stress disorder". In the same year he was promoted for Docent and in 2014 for Associated Professor for Psychiatry and Medical Psychology at the School of Medicine, University of Tuzla. Also, he teaches Community Mental Health on the undergraduate courses at the School of Medicine Tuzla, and Addictions at the Faculty for Special Education and Rehabilitation on University of Tuzla. Since 2007 he teaches undergraduate courses in Social Pathology, Community Mental Health, Addictions, Occupational Therapy and Post-Treatment Care at the Islamic Faculty Zenica, and since 2010 a postgraduate course in Resocialization at the Department of Social pedagogy of the University Zenica. He gained a title Primarius Doctor in 1994, and he is a board-certified subspecialist in social psychiatry (Ministry of Health of Bosnia-Herzegovina Federation, 2007). He is one of founders of Tuzla users' associations: „Fenix“, „Nada (Hope)“ and „Stećak“. He was Secretary of 6th International Congress of World Islamic Association for

Mental Health (WIAMH), 1999, Tuzla, BH. General Secretary of the 3rd Congress of Psychiatry Association in Bosnia and Herzegovina with International Participation 2012 in Tuzla, BH. His clinical and research interest include the clinical psychiatry, adolescent psychiatry, addictions, EMDR, group analysis, and psychology of spirituality. He is President of Tuzla Canton Psychiatry Association (2011) and President of Bosnia-Herzegovina EMDR Association (2013). Awarded with second Prizes for the best scientific paper published in 2005, 2006 and 2012/2013 year in University Clinical Center Tuzla, and he is member of Editorial board of journals "Acta Medica Saliniana" and "Acta Medica Academica", "Pediatrics Today", "Journal of Neurology & Stroke". He published more than 200 scientific and professional papers in the field of psychiatry and mental health care in the International Journals, and as book chapters in the national and international books. He is a co-editor of one book and guest co-editor of the Journal Psychiatria Danubina 24(suppl. 3). On the MEDLINE/PubMed 24 published articles are available; according the Google Scholar he was cited 387 times. With collaborators, he established medical assisted treatment of heroin addicts with buprenorphine+naloxone (Suboxone) method in BH. He coordinates education in Eye Movements Reprocessing and Desensitization (EMDR) in BH. He coordinated several international research projects. He is married and has five children.