

Dr. Xiaoying Bi

MD., Ph.D. Director of Department of Neurology, Changhai Hospital, Second Military Medical University. She completed her MD in 1996 and a PhD in Neurology in 2005 at Second Military Medical University, China. From 1996 she did a resident in the Department of Neurology in Changhai Hospital, Second Military Medical University and got an attending doctor's position from 2002. This was followed by a Postdoctoral Fellow in psychopharmacology in the Department of Psychiatry at University of Saskatchewan and University of Manitoba from 2006 to 2008. She attained the position of associate Professor in the Department of Neurology in 2009 and began to supervise master students. From 2011, she was appointed as Vice Director of the Department of Neurology and 3 years after that appointed as Director of the Department of Neurology in Changhai Hospital, Second Military Medical University. She is the Vice-Chairman of Shanghai Society of Behavioral Medicine in Chinese Medical Association. Dr. Bi has published more than 60 papers. She has been funded by The National Natural Science Fund of China for three times and by some provincial foundations.